A teacher sent this note to the mother of an unruly pupil:
“Dear Mrs. Jones:

“I regret very much to inform you that your son, Robert, idles away most of his time, is disobedient, quarrelsome, and disturbs other students who are trying to work. He needs a good thrashing and I strongly urge that you give him one.”

This was the reply she received.

“Dear Miss Smith—Lick him yourself. I ain't mad at him.”

Two workmen settled down to eat their dinner. One began unwrapping a large parcel which the other stared at in surprise.

What's that? he asked.

Well, it's like this, My missus is away so I thought I'd make myself a pie.

Kind of long, ain't it?

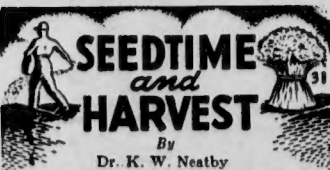

Oh, I dunno. It's rhubarb.

SEED SUPPLIES

It may seem a trifle early to begin thinking about seed, but it may soon be too late to secure good seed of coarse grains and forage crops. The farmer who waits until the end of March to discover that he needs 50 or 100 bushels of seed barley will probably find it necessary to use third-rate stuff.

The demand for feed grains this winter in eastern, as well as western, Canada, combined with the shortage of elevator storage space, is resulting in a rapid turnover. Then, also, harvesting conditions were so bad in many districts, resulting in large quantities of damp and sprouted grain, that local seed shortages will be numerous.

The Agricultural Department of The North-West Line Elevators Association does not hesitate to advise a germination test for all oats and barley seed this year. Samples of wheat, oats, barley, flax or rye need only be delivered to a grain buyer of any line elevator company associated with this Department in order to obtain a reliable test.

Any farmer who knows now that he will require seed oats or barley next spring, should take immediate steps to secure the required amount.

The situation respecting supplies of grass and clover seed may be similar, and delay in ordering may lead to disappointment in the spring.

Of course, many farmers will be unable to decide upon the question of coarse grain and forage crop seed requirements until the Dominion Government announces a wheat policy for 1942.

The regular monthly meeting of the Council of the Municipal District of Harmony 128, was held December 4. All members were present, Reeve Griffin presiding.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and adopted on motion of Councillor Matlock.

Secretary's monthly report of receipts and expenditures was accepted on motion of councillor Ellis.

On motion of Councillor Mix the Secretary was instructed to arrange for the annual meeting to be held at the Community Hall.

H. J. Higgins was appointed returning officer; J. L. Bowman was appointed deputy returning officer with W. Jensen as poll clerk for Division 1. For Division 2 F. S. Ratcher was appointed deputy returning officer with Ed. Weiss as poll clerk.

Councillor Ellis moved that the first meeting in January be held on the second Thursday of the month instead of the first.

A fire insurance policy coming up for renewal in December was ordered renewed.

Councillor Hopkins moved that Flock's Funeral Home account be again discussed and on motion of Reeve Griffin it was ordered paid for fifty dollars as per agreement.

Balance of accounts before Council were ordered paid on motion of Councillor Mix.

A communication from Mrs. Klein of Calgary, asking for an increased allowance was discussed by all the Council and it was decided rather than increase the allowance the Council is prepared to place Mrs. Klein in home.

On a motion of Councillor Hagerman the Secretary was instructed to have the necessary papers prepared preparatory to taking title to two parcels of land.

Councillor Ellis moved that December 15th be the deadline for Minimum tax account collections, and that after that date action be taken to enforce collection.

Discussion arose regarding a ratepayer who has applied to the Farmer Creditors Arrangement Act for a compromise, and Councillor Hopkins moved that the Reeve be appointed a committee to represent the Municipal District at the hearing in Lethbridge, and to voice the Council's feelings in this matter.

Discussion arose in respect to taxes on irrigated lands that have been sold by the Irrigation District, and Councillor Matlock moved that the Secretary accept the current taxes on this land and that such notation be made on the tax receipt.

Secretary read a communication from a trust company in respect to a tax consolidation agreement, the company wished to have the benefits of the discounts as provided for by the act but did not want to sign the agreements, the Council instructed the Secretary to reply and to advise, that this was contrary to Tax Consolidation Act, and that such arrears must be treated in the usual manner, either Consolidated or not Consolidated.

An application for increase in the old age pension was read from W. J. Blakely at the Gleichen home, and after a discussion the Secretary was instructed to complete same, with a letter of recommendation for a full pension.

A communication was read from the Department of Municipal Affairs advising that the proposed change in the Municipal Tax Roll will not be effective in 1942.

Secretary reported he had a personal interview with the representative of a trust company with respect to a parcel of land recently acquired by the Municipal District of Harmony, he advised that all claims by the District would be met, and a cheque be in the hands of the Secretary in the next few days in order that the Municipal District can issue a transfer as a new owner is anticipated. Meeting then adjourned.

There is no doubt in the mind of this impartial observer of the passing show along Parliament Hill that these are disturbing times in political circles in the nation's capital. Although in this respect they do not differ much from other periods of our history, yet we happen to be living through them instead of merely reading about them in history. Therefore well-informed quarters in Ottawa hold that it is not easy for the man-in-the-street to get a proper perspective on happenings at the present time since even an expert observer of the anxiety and distress backstage in the capital must admit readily that it is impossible to foretell what may result from the actions of possible trouble-makers or perverse individuals who may throw monkey-wrenches into the political works and who may bring on a political calamity. It has happened before in our history and it may happen again. In other words, there are two classifications of political personalities or groups in the capital now, one being what this observer would term, "stirrers-up" and the others being "calmers-down."

Ever since Lord Bennett retired from the leadership of the Conservative party, it is no secret that conditions within the Party itself and its influence throughout the country were very unsatisfactory. Indeed, just prior to the retirement of Lord Bennett there were signs of the impending trouble since the leader of that time rubbed forth with a "New Deal" platform, though these social, political and economic reforms were presented too late and they failed to forestall the disaster. However now the Conservative Party has chosen a leader in the person of the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen who possesses just the right sort of vitriolic language, criticism, etc., which will provide the Official Opposition not only with a definite stand on the famous issue of "conscription for overseas service" in this war but the right sort of leadership for the so-called "stirrers-up" along Parliament Hill. And if there are any dissenters in the ranks of the other political parties, the new leader of the Official Opposition will attract them to his side, perhaps, to a far greater extent than the man-in-the-street is able to visualize at the moment.

But there is another angle to this political picture. The Liberal Party is in power with a huge majority of so-called calmers-down in this crisis. Their leader, Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, has complete control so far over not only his Ministers but also the rank and file of the Party. Indeed, he is by far the most successful leader since the days of Sir Wilfred Laurier. In the past twenty-two years he has been Prime Minister

PRICE CEILING

Elsewhere in this issue is an advertisement relative to the Price Ceiling Order now in effect. We would advise all readers of this paper to make a point of becoming familiar with the text of this notice.

This is one of the most important pieces of legislation enacted since the outbreak of the war. It's object, pure and simple, is to prevent inflation, and protect the individual citizen from exploitation at the hands of unpatriotic individuals who would use the excuse of war to raise prices unfairly and line their pockets at the expense of us all.

Do your part by living up to the regulations in whatever way they effect you.

THIS FREEDOM

As time goes on we are becoming, each and every one of us, more and more affected by the war. We who are the stay at homes are finding that no matter what our station is in life we are obliged to contribute our share to the national effort. Nearly every month sees new legislation affecting us, new calls upon our pocketbooks, new intrusions upon our time. All these we must accept honestly and courageously. They are the price we pay for living in a democracy. And the price is small in comparison to the value we get for our money. If we were living under Hitler we would be contributing much more, very much more, and we would get in return only moral and economic slavery. Yes, there may be some things about our democratic way of life that we do not like, but we do like 'this freedom' we enjoy so much. That is why we buckle down and accept these wartime impositions in good spirit.

The people of Canada may well be proud of themselves. In every call made upon them for money or service, they have much more than met their obligations. Carry on Canada!

for seventeen years. Under his active guidance, the liberal party won the general elections in 1921, 1925, 1935, and 1940, failing to win the approval of the people in only one appeal, that was in 1930. It is no secret that his successful record is now keeping the party followers together in complete unity on important war issues, with the vast majority of his followers willing to rise or fall on his decisions. They feel he has had remarkable success in elections, though quite often it appeared as if if the man in the street did not approve of his policies.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

— "V" —

The first basketball game of the season played by the Champion Scotties took place at Carmangay, December 2. The line-up was as follows.

Centre—Panline Fisher 2
Forward—Rose Chaproniere 2
Forward—Doreen Stewart
Guard—Olive McLean
Guard—Ethel Griffin
Subs—Vivian Griffin 6
—Rose Doyle

Vivian Griffin proved to be a very promising young player, this being the first time she has played with the seniors. It was she who scored more than half the points. Referees of the game were S. Lindstedt of Champion and R. Dayman of Carmangay.

The first part of the game was very slow but livened up towards the end after a pep talk by the coach, R. Inman to the Scotties.

The final score of the game was 31-10, a victory for the Carmangay girls. Eight of the Scotties points were scored during the last three minutes of play.

Jayne Ireland and Mary McFarland were the outstanding players on the Carmangay team, scoring most the points between them.

On Friday, December 5th, a meeting of the high school students was held. It was decided that the students would not exchange Christmas gifts this year; instead the money would be used for an extra treat at the Christmas party which was to be held Friday, December 12 in the basement of the Community Hall. It was also decided at the meeting that Mr. Lindstedt consult the School Board as to whether we may hold a dance sponsored by the school parliament, after the Christmas party December 23rd.

The C. H. S. Commentator is now published and anyone desiring a copy should see Ethel Griffin.

Heard at the School: The farmers wheat crops are going to suffer after this war because there isn't going to be any German nation.

CANADA

THE PRICE CEILING ORDER IS NOW LAW

A fine up to $5,000 and two years imprisonment is provided for offences against this law

What You Must Do to Comply With This Law

1. As a Consumer

You must not buy goods or services for more than the highest price charged for such goods or services during the basic period, September 15 to October 11. If in doubt, ask your merchant for proof the price he asks is a lawful price under the Price Ceiling order. Normal seasonal price changes in fresh fruits and vegetables and greenhouse products are exempt.

2. As a Retailer

You must not sell goods or services for more than the highest price at which you sold such goods or services in the basic period, September 15 to October 11.

You must not buy goods or services from manufacturers or wholesalers or any other sources for more than the highest price you paid to them in the basic period.

It is intended that cases of serious hardship should be adjusted by reducing the cost of merchandise to the retailer. Retailers whose cost of merchandise delivered to them after November 30 is too high in relation to the ceiling prices, should get in touch with their suppliers and try to arrange an adjustment fair to both parties.

The price of goods of a kind or quality not sold during the basic period must not be more than the highest price charged for substantially similar goods in the basic period.

3. As a Wholesaler

You must not sell goods or services at more than your highest price (less discounts then prevailing) for such goods or services during the basic period, September 15 to October 11. You must not buy goods or services for more than the highest prices paid during the basic period.

Wholesalers will be expected in some cases to reduce their prices below the ceiling in order that their retail accounts may carry on. Wholesalers in turn may have to ask their suppliers for price reductions.

The continued flow of goods through normal channels is of the utmost importance and the Board will intervene if suppliers divert business abnormally from one customer to another.

4. As a Manufacturer

You must not sell at prices higher than your highest price (less discounts then prevailing) during the basic period September 15 to October 11.

In some cases it will be necessary for manufacturers to reduce their prices below the ceiling so that wholesale and retail accounts may carry on.

Where maintenance of the retail ceiling requires manufacturers' prices to be substantially reduced, the Board will investigate and in proper cases will afford necessary relief.

Imports

Retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers are assured by the Board that any considerable increases in the costs of import of essential goods will be covered either by subsidies or by adjustment of taxes. Details will be announced shortly.

Services Also Come Under This Law

The Price Ceiling law also applies to rates and charges for electricity, gas, steam, heat, water, telegraph, wireless, telephone, transportation, provision of dock, harbour, pier facilities; warehousing and storage; manufacturing processes performed on a commission or profit basis; undertaking and embalming; laundering, cleaning, tailoring and dressmaking; hairdressing, barbering and beauty parlour services; plumbing, heating, painting, decorating, cleaning, and renovating; repairing of all kinds; supplying of meals, refreshment and beverages; exhibition of motion pictures.

NO CHEATING OR EVASION OF THE PRICE CEILING LAW WILL BE TOLERATED

"How the Price Law Works," a pamphlet setting forth how each branch of business must apply the regulations to its own operation will shortly be available at Post Offices and Branch Banks.

The Board will soon open Regional Offices throughout Canada where problems may be discussed. These Offices will co-operate with business in the adjustment of difficulties.

The Price Ceiling law is vital to Canada's war effort.
